SHOT TO DEATH BY BROTHER-IN-LAW

County Commissioner Wilkinson Murdered as Result of Family Trouble.

Oxford, N. C., September 2.—County Commissioner W. P. Wilkinson, of Granville County, was shot to death on the public highway this morning while driving to town by M. B. Hobgood, his brother-in-law, brother of the sheriff-elect of the county.

There had been trouble brewing between Hobgood and his wife's family, the culmination of which was to-day's tragedy. For three months she had been living with her people. This morning Mr. Wilkinson had started with her and her child to her brother's, Dick Watkins, who lives in the suburbs of Oxford. On the way they were intercepted by Mr. Hobgood, who urged his wife to go home with him. She refused, and Mr. Wilkinson explained to Mr. Hobgood that she could not go because of the fact that he was drinking and not in a condition to take care of her. Finally quieting

NEGROES HELD FOR MURDER.

Prominent Citizen of Dover Killed on Street in Afternoon.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Newbern, N. C., September 2.—Yesterday morning the little town of Dover was thrown into great excitement when the news spread that Clem Johnson, a prominent citizen, had been brutally murdered on the public street by two negro men. There were no eye-witnesses to the murder except those actually taking part in the affair. Johnson was stabbed to death, his throat being badly lacerated. Very shortly after the killing took place Charles Moore and Tass Hill, colored, were arrested and charged with the murder, and kept under a guard until they were brought to Newbern yesterday evening safekeeping; pending an investigation.

The coroner, Dr. Jones, was notified, and last night he went to Dover to hold an inquest. A jury was summoned, which heard the testimony of several witnesses, which resulted in the holding of Tass Hill for the murder of Mr. Johnson and Charles Moore as an accomplice, to be held for the grand jury without bail.
